- St Andrew Knot

Four-In-Hand Knot.

- ✓ The Four-in-Hand knot is the most popular tie knot used today.
- ✓ It is the simplest and has been fashionable in Great Britain since the 1850's.
- ✓ It is the easiest to tie.
- ✓ The term four-in-hand comes originally from the driver of a carriage with four horses. He had all four reins tied in a knot in one hand.

- ✓ This has been fashionable in Great Britain since the 1850s.

Task One

Get a tie. Tie it in a four-in-hand knot.
Either use the 7 diagrams or the formula method.
Who can do it?

The Full Windsor Knot.

- ✓ This was named for King George Vth (1865-1936).
- ✓ You're about to go into a big business meeting! Your suit is perfectly fitted. Your shoes are shined. Your shirt is pressed. Which necktie knot do you go with?
- ✓ It has to make an impression. But not be flashy. It needs to convey power, confidence, and authority.
- ✓ The choice is simple. It's the Full Windsor knot !
- ✓ The Full Windsor is one of the larger necktie knots. It maintains a classic feel. Not the bells and whistles you get with some modern necktie knots.
- ✓ It shows that you mean business!

It's a knot that is to be worn for formal occasions and meetings. Think weddings, very important business meetings, and debates.

Task Two.

Get a tie. Tie it in a Full Windsor Knot.

Either use the 11 diagrams or the formula method.

Who can do it?

You need to do this to meet the Queen or the President!!

Interesting fact!

The Full Windsor Knot is the only tie-knot that is used by all personnel in the Royal Air Force in the UK while in uniform. However, the Full Windsor Knot is often frowned upon in other Armed Services or Regiments of the British Forces through its association with the Duke of Windsor who many think it was named after.

The Half Windsor Knot.

- ✓ It is larger than the Four in Hand.
- ✓ It is smaller than the Full Windsor.
- ✓ It has symmetry, balance, and is considered appropriate for many important occasions.
- ✓ It is made for sleek, tall, thinner and fit men!
- ✓ It produces a neat looking triangular knot.
- ✓ It is acceptable but not as important as a Full Windsor!

Who can do it?
You need to do this to gain respect !!

The Pratt.

- ✓ Named after Jerry Pratt.
- ✓ It is a revolution in tying tie-knots.
- ✓ It starts by being reverse side out!
- ✓ It was not recognised in the fashion industry until 1989.
- ✓ The Pratt is symmetrical which is why its popular.
- ✓ It is the knot of the “Every Man”, for nearly all occasions!
